

4th International Collective Action Conference

Basel, Switzerland

Stakeholder breakout sessions:
The Marketplace of ideas for Collective Action

30 June 2022, 15:15 – 16:45

The public sector perspective

Top-down leadership – The role of governments and standard setting bodies in Collective Action

Facilitators:

Izadora Zubek,
French Anti-Corruption
Authority

Daniela Santana Silva,
Office of the Comptroller
General of the Republic of Chile

Aim and rationale

- Contributing to a better understanding of the individual positions and roles of the stakeholders involved in Collective Action
- Working towards identifying how the private sector, government, and civil society can work together more effectively towards and through Collective Action initiatives
- Mobilising the Collective Action community to create momentum and anchor Collective Action within their work
- Developing concrete and actionable recommendations to mainstream Collective Action

Key Themes

- What does it take for Collective Action to become more integrated into national anti-corruption: strategies, policies, laws, and guidance documents?
- Do the right engagement platforms exist?
- Looking to the future, what is the public sector proposition for Collective Action, and how can the role of government evolve? (in preparation for the panel discussion the next day)

Format

- Interactive discussion facilitated by Izadora Zubek (French Anti-Corruption Authority) and Daniela Santana Silva (Office of the Comptroller General of the Republic of Chile)
- The ideas and concepts developed during the breakout will be presented on day 2 during the panel “Rising to the challenge by joining forces to mainstream Collective Action”
- Chatham House Rules will apply
